2. New Cancer Drug Benefit

The "New Cancer Drug" refers to an experimental drug which at the stage of its prescription, should at least be in an active phase III of its clinical trial as well as having well documented and effective preliminary review of its efficacy as form of treatment as well as having the approval from one of the following regulatory authorities for its inclusion in a clinical trial and testing it for its use as treatment in human beings:

- United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA)
- European Medicines Agency (EMA)
- National Pharmaceutical Regulatory Agency (NPRA) Ministry of Health of Malaysia
- National Institutes of Health (NIH)
- International Oncology Network/Malaysian Oncological Society

If a Life Assured is diagnosed with Cancer as defined above, the Company shall reimburse the Reasonable and Customary Charges incurred for the use of a New Cancer Drug that is found to be Medically Necessary by the attending oncologist, subject to the limits stated in the Schedule of Benefits. The Life Assured requiring the New Cancer Drug must be diagnosed with a Stage III or IV Cancer. The diagnosis of Cancer must be supported by a medical report issued by a duly registered oncologist in Malaysia certifying that the Life Assured requires the use of a New Cancer Drug as an active or palliative treatment for the Cancer diagnosed.

The Reasonable and Customary reimbursement cost for the use of a New Cancer Drug would only be reimbursed provided it has not already been sponsored/covered/paid by any third party or by any other source or means. New Cancer Drugs that are prescribed or dispensed to the Life Assured outside of Malaysia are excluded from this benefit.

Only Reasonable and Customary Charges that are directly related to the prescription and cost of a New Cancer Drug shall be reimbursed. Any charges incurred for delivery and storage of New Cancer Drug, Hospitalisation, Pre and Post-Hospitalisation treatment, Day Surgery, or Outpatient Cancer Treatment are not covered by this benefit.

3. Reconstructive Surgery Benefit

If a Life Assured is diagnosed with Cancer as defined above, the Company shall reimburse the Reasonable and Customary Charges incurred for reconstructive surgery for restoration of normal appearance of breast, head or neck following previous surgery related to breast or head and neck cancer. Head and neck cancers include cancers of the oral cavity, pharynx, larynx, nasal cavity, paranasal sinuses and salivary glands.

The incurred charges include:

- surgeon's fees;
- anaesthetist's fees
- charges for the use of the operating theatre; and
- the cost of implants related to reconstructive surgery of the breast, head or neck due to breast cancer, or head and neck cancer.

The benefit is limited to twelve (12) months from the cancer surgery. Any reconstruction surgery performed after this twelve (12)-month period will not be covered.

The benefit is not payable for reconstruction surgery unrelated to the area affected by previous cancer surgery arising from Breast and Head and Neck cancer. For clarity, if breast cancer affected the right breast, reconstruction surgery involving the left breast will not be covered.

For the avoidance of doubt, surgery solely for isolated dental restoration and scar revision to improve or reduce the appearance of a scar, or any complications resulting from the initial reconstructive surgery including any revision surgery are excluded.

4. Post Cancer Screening Benefit

If a Life Assured is diagnosed with Cancer as defined above, the Company shall reimburse the Reasonable and Customary Charges incurred for Medically Necessary consultation, laboratory tests and screening tests (after diagnosis of Cancer is confirmed) which are recommended by the treating Physician to monitor the Life Assured within five (5) years immediately following the 365 days after hospital discharge from cancer treatment.

Any consultation, laboratory tests or screening carried out which is not directly due to the Cancer shall not be covered.

For the avoidance of doubt, any charges incurred for Hospitalisation, Pre-Hospital Diagnostic Tests, Pre-Hospital Specialist Consultation, Treatment, Prescribed Medicines and Second Medical Opinion, Post-Hospitalisation Treatment, Day Surgery, or Outpatient Cancer Treatment are not covered hereunder.

5. Psychological Counselling Benefit

If a Life Assured is diagnosed with Cancer as defined above, the Company shall reimburse the Reasonable and Customary Charges incurred for psychological counselling on mental disorders, subject to all the following conditions:

- Life Assured must have a confirmed diagnosis of Cancer; and
- Life Assured must be directly attributable to the Cancer diagnosis of the Life Assured; and
- The psychological counselling session must be provided by a Malaysia registered Psychiatrist or Psychologist with regulated council for the aim to address the mental disorders arise as a result of the emotional impact of the Cancer diagnosis on the Life Assured; and
- Life Assured must be in the midst of receiving Cancer treatment.

The amount payable for this benefit is subjected to the limits stated in the Schedule of Benefits.

The following conditions are excluded from the coverage:

- Mental health conditions existed before the Life Assured's cancer diagnosis.
- Mental health issues unrelated to the cancer diagnosis.
- All substance/medication or alcohol induced mental disorder.

6. Overseas Treatment

If the life assured is to be treated outside of Malaysia or was hospitalised for a medical treatment outside of Malaysia, benefits in respect of the treatment shall be limited to the reasonable and customary charges for such equivalent treatment in Malaysia and shall exclude the cost of transportation from/to the place of treatment.

7. Residence Overseas

No benefit whatsoever shall be payable for any medical treatment received by the Life Assured outside Malaysia apart from Singapore and Brunei, if the Life Assured resides or travels outside Malaysia apart from Singapore and Brunei, for more than ninety (90) consecutive days.
