(d) If other riders are attached to the basic plan, these will also terminated and surrender values for these riders only (if any), will then be payable.

The option is allowed PROVIDED that:

(a) Junior Advantage Rider Series 3 is attached at the inception of this plan; and
(b) There is no indebtedness outstanding on the basic plan and Junior Advantage Rider Series 3 at the end of the policy year 10; and
(c) The policy is still in force and premium has been paid from the policy commencement date to the end of the policy year 10; and

Option 2: Extend the Junior Advantage Rider Series 3's benefits to age 87

The policyowner can choose to extend the Junior Advantage Rider Series 3's benefits to age 87. After selecting this option:

(a) The policyowner will continue paying the premiums for:
    (i) the basic plan until age 87; and
    (ii) Junior Advantage Rider Series 3 until policy year 20
(b) The policyowner will start receiving the Survival Benefit from the end of policy year 10 until maturity.
(c) The Sum Assured of Junior Advantage Rider Series 3 will continue increasing based on a pre-determined scale (as a % of Basic Sum Assured).
(d) Both the basic plan and Junior Advantage Rider Series 3 will mature at age 87.

   If the Life Assured's age next birthday at the date of conversion is 10 years or below, then Extended Term Assurance conversion should be based on age 10 next birthday at entry.

   TPD benefit, survival benefit and maturity benefit shall cease upon conversion to Extended Term Assurance. Similarly, all attaching riders and supplementary benefits (if any) shall be terminated.
